NOTICE.

A MAN'S character should be judged from what it has been before, and by that means elegance or worthlessness can be discerned. A story should be judged by its true or false bearings, so that right and wrong may be distinguished. These remarks apply to the case in which Messrs Tsang Shun Yee and Woo Lin Tak were, on the 27th day of the 10th moon last year, (24th November 1875), slandered by Lai Ming Chun.

Messrs. Tsang Shun Yee and Woo Lin Tak have been residing for more than ten years in Hongkong and have always been employed in representing Nam Pak Hong in their transactions with foreigners. While their character stands high, their conduct is excellent, and they have for a long time back been respected by both Chinese and foreigners. They have not only borne a name that is approaching to anything improper, but they have not in the course of all their actions done anything objectionable. Unexpectedly, however, slander came upon them unawares, but of course, when virtue stands high, reproach will come. They were therefore falsely charged by Lai Ming Chun's letters, which were void of all truth, with selling people for emigration abroad. They are indeed laughing under a false imputation from which it is now difficult for them to clear themselves. Our office, therefore, in punishing Lai Ming Chun for having done what he ought not to have done, orders him—and he consents—to pay the sum of $600 (the amount of legal expenses) he has also by way of punishment to pay $25 into the Poor Box for the benefit of the Hongkong Poor. He is further punished by having to pay the expenses of advertising in the Chinese and foreign newspapers in the Colony, three of each, for the period of one month, a notice which will bring before the public his sin in this defamation. Reparations like these will, perhaps, allay in a measure the indignation which Messrs Tsang and Woo feel.

When a man finds fault with others he ought in the first instance to enquire whether he himself is unblemished. Now Lai Ming Chun, as a man, is not one who is numbered among the gentry, nor is his name pronounced by the lips of the illustrious. Yet he falsely dilates in slanderous language and spreads diffused by word of mouth stories to the detriment and pollution of (the good name of) Messrs Tsang and Woo. It was right therefore that Messrs Tsang and Woo sought to sue him in the Courts of Justice, and he was on the eve of being punished by the utmost penalty of the law. Fortunately, however, Messrs Tsang and Woo's magnanimity is expansive as the sea and as capacious as the ocean, and they deal with people liberally; with that end in view, they therefore prefer, instead of punishing him, as he rightly deserves, to forgive him of the enormous crime of which he has been guilty. Having ceased litigation now, they have no resentment against any one, and by so doing, they cherish the friendly tie that exists amongst the Chinese clans. They have also shown that in doing this they are inflicting a lenient punishment for the sake of a great warning. They are indeed fully sustaining the benevolent principles of the great men, and for this act of theirs, may the happiness (or good fortune) of Messrs Tsang and Woo never grow less.

CIRCULATING HERALD

NOTICE IN EXPLANATION OF A SLANDER.

THE principles of right or wrong will reveal themselves in course of time, and this saying is clearly set forth in the History of China. When undue reliance is placed on statements by word of mouth, a good argument is always wanting, and this is what the Book of Changes has always guarded people against. If a man is not guilty of anything seriously wrong, is it likely that he will submit himself to be killed?

With regard to Lai Ming Chun, he is indeed a bare-faced fellow, and one who has no regard for anything. On the 27th day of the 10th moon last year (24th November 1875), he slandered Messrs. Tsang Shun Yee and Woo Lin Tak by falsely accusing them of being engaged in the nefarious trade of selling people for the purposes of emigration, and that in their transactions they were in fact kidnappers. And finally, he recorded the same in the Trin Wan Yat Fo, (The Universal Circulating Herald), so that Messrs Tsang and Woo had thought of suing him before the local authorities, so that he might be punished for libelling people's character. Fortunately for him, however, Lai Ming Chun learnt in time of his own wrong in slandering the character of good men, and now he has voluntarily consented to pay the penalty of bearing the legal expenses in the sum of $600, and to pay also (into the poor box) $25, for the relief of the Hongkong poor; also, from his own funds, to pay the costs of inserting in the Chinese and foreign newspapers, three of each, for the period of one month, an article, in order to redeem himself from what he has been guilty of. But this, nevertheless, would not actually be sufficient to cover the enormity of his sin. The reason why Messrs Tsang and Woo consented to these terms was because they had been advised by intimate friends, who urged that, inasmuch as both parties were Chinese men, how could they, Messrs Tsang and Woo, have the heart to see him (Lai Ming Chun) put in a goal of the foreigner? So that it would be far better that they should forgive him, but inflict a small penalty by way of a small warning.

It so happened, luckily, that Messrs Tsang and Woo's magnanimity proved to be as expansive as the sea and as capacious as the ocean, and it was thus that the matter was put an end to. This is sufficient to show that Messrs Tsang and Woo are peaceful and quiet men, and that they have done a very good act. But Lai Ming Chun is a man who is very much conceited (lit. the night pedestrian who thinks a great deal of himself), and one who falsely dilates in satire and raillery. He began life in a very mean position, and is not of a respectable family (lit. the descendant of the pure and white). While in a menial position, he, moreover, offends his superiors. Therefore it would not be arbitrary were he to be banished beyond the frontier, nor would it be too much were he to be put to the sword (lit. under the axe). Now that he is only fined in so small a sum, it is indeed his good fortune that he has escaped greater consequences.

THE CHINA MAIL.

HONGKONG, FRIDAY, MARCH 3, 1876.

It is somewhat amusing to note the strenuous efforts made by some of the San Francisco papers to prove not merely that the Chinaman has no rights of citizenship, but that the immortal Washington and all the other fathers of their country never intended them to have any. The Alta California (usually known in California as "Granny Alta," essayed, in an extract which we published last evening, to show that, inasmuch as whites and blacks alone are mentioned in the United States Statutes regarding naturalization, copper-coloured people were thereby intended to be debarred from the privileges conferred upon their more fortunate coloured competitors in the labour market. The injustice thus defended is no doubt laughable, but it has its grave side. It is to begin with, in express defiance of the principle laid down in the American declaration that "all men are born free and equal." Of course it may be urged that a Chinaman is not a "man," but this contention gives rise to some awkward questions. In what is he inferior to the negro? Has the latter a national history and literature or even a civilization comparable to that of the Chinaman? The Alta would exclude Chinese on the ground that they do not learn the English language. But how about the vast number who do, and to whom (in some British colonies at all events) it is a "milk-tongue"? It further urges that they do not adopt our (American) customs, "and might come by millions." But how does this exclude those who do adopt American customs, and only come by scores? Nobody is more alive to the idiotic nature of Atlantic regulations as regards naturalization than we are. Irish and German peasants, whom we would not entrust with the responsibility of choosing a leader, are in the glorious "home of the free" thought capable of voting upon the gravest matters of state. The negroes who, as a race, are unfitted to exercise discretion in the matter of selecting a town distrikt, are now a power in their own state, the few capable men of their race are to be found leading their ignorant companions like flocks of sheep.
But the Chinaman, with twice the intelligence, treble the thrift, and four times the cleanliness of either, must be kept out. Truly the falsity of the theory which Americans profess to hold so dear could scarcely be better demonstrated.

We should not quarrel with them for saying frankly: "You will be inconvenient additions to our population. Our constitution was never framed to meet so unexpected an occurrence as Chinese immigration. We must violate our theory or run a risk we do not choose to incur; so we must exclude you." But we dislike the moral cowardice which endeavours to show that hatred of the Chinaman is in accordance with the principle so loudly vaunted of "freedom and welcome for all." All sensible Americans out here agree with us, we are glad to say. It is singular that not a single one is ever found raising his voice against the "hypocritical pretences by which so many American journals seek to prove that an intelligent third of the human race rank somewhat below monkeys.

HONGKONG, it would seem, is not the only place in which the Chinese bring influence to bear adverse to the dignity of the duly established Government.
A native contemporary informs us that the project of establishing a custom house at Patara within the limits of practical, if not theoretical, Portuguese jurisdiction, owed its inception to the Chinese merchants of Macao. According to the account published these gentry "found that the present locality was inconvenient," and they therefore advocated a change to which, very rightly, the Portuguese authorities strenuously objected.
We are not unfamiliar with a somewhat similar course of action in Hongkong.
The native merchants who complained so bitterly of the action of the blockade cruisers were curiously willing to support the establishment in this colony of a clearance-cum-warehouse office, at which they could, for a trifling premium, obtain clearances to relieve them from other exactions. The office for the issue of these documents existed but three months since in Bonham Strand and, we believe, still drives a thriving business to this day!

It is high time that this species of petty treason to the Governments which protect them be put down with a strong hand. It is needless to point out how much such action embarrasses any attempts made by the foreign communities at either port to do away with the arbitrary and unjust proceedings, which a superior respect for what they are pleased to term "international rights," prevents either Government from abolishing by main force. The Chinese complain bitterly to individuals of the squeezes to which they are subjected. But their dread of getting into trouble with the native officials on the mainland, and their innate disloyalty to foreign authority—a disloyalty which has been often and flagrantly manifested in similar cases—overpower even their sense of the injustice to which they are subjected. After all, they say, "our" (that is the Chinese) Government desires us to do so and so,—and they accordingly comply with its behests.
The very men who make the loudest outcry at both Hongkong and Macao about the injurious effect upon trade of the Hopps's proceedings obey his directions to the minutest details. Private information of the continued existence of the office which Sir Richard MacDonnell suppressed in so straightforward a manner a few months since. But as no check appears to have been placed upon its operations, we can only conclude that the executive deems its existence beneficial to the public and compatible with the dignity of the administration. We do not share that opinion, nor do our leading merchants. But it is not to be wondered at that the natives of Macao should have been encouraged by the action of the Hongkong Government in the matter to go a step further and recommend a really less insulting mode of action, though one which Portuguese spirit could not brook. Macao may certainly thank Hongkong for at least some of the difficulties which are "strangling" her restricted trade.

It is to be regretted that native journals should support a procedure which the unanimous voice of the foreign community has condemned; but, as a free Chinese press is within reasonable bounds, likely to prove rather a blessing than a curse, we have nothing further to say against its action. An ignorance of international rights as regards fiscal action is to be expected in such quarters, and as Wheaton (the only authority translated into Chinese) is silent on the point which applies to Hongkong or Macao vis-à-vis China, we feel chary of blaming those who defend a course of policy irreconcilable with the due maintenance of foreign sovereignty in either Colony. That China has, even on the highest grounds, a right to collect duties in her own waters only and not even then indiscriminately if it interferes with the freedom of a "free" port, has yet to be learned by native writers; and our officials are greatly responsible for having allowed any "blockade question" whatever to exist. Macao has, in this respect, set us a good example; she has, at least, promptly put down an attempt to interfere with her rights, while we have tamely submitted to action which goes far beyond the occupation of Patara.
We can only hope that some sparks of our late Governor's spirit will eventually be found to remain in the hearts of the present administration. A Bonham Strand clearance office is as absolutely incompatible with our own rights as the proposed occupation of Patara was with those of Portugal. Now that the latter power has shown us what proper determination will effect, we may perhaps see a change inaugurated. It is fully time that it took place.

THE YUNNAN MISSION.

The N. C. D. News gives the following items concerning the progress of Mr Grovenor's Expedition, which, being slightly more definite than those previously published by ourselves, will be found of interest:—

We are glad to hear that, although we are still without direct news of the Yunnan Mission, the Hankow officials say they have heard indirectly of their arrival at Suichow, some 200 miles or so beyond Chungking.
They were not going to follow the ordinary route thence, so might not reach Yunnan till the end of January, or even later; and communication while on their way would be uncertain. We should hear about three weeks after their arrival at Yunnan-foo.

We are glad to hear that news has been received confirming the safe arrival of the Yunnan mission at Suichow, which they reached on the 26th January. They were met there by an escort, sent by Li Hanchang to accompany them to Yunnan-foo.
This removes all apprehension as to their safety, but does not explain why no letters have been received from them from Suichow.
The only inference is that these must have gone astray.

THE SPIRIT OF THE MORNING PRESS.

The Press comments on a report that a revision of the Treaty of Tientsin is in contemplation, and trusts that the same will prove well founded. Little by little the Chinese Authorities have encroached on the Treaty until the taxation on trade has reached such a climax that some of the native officials have been constrained to protest against it as excessive, and have addressed the throne, showing that its utmost limit has been reached, and that the revenue has positively fallen off through the increased charges. From every treaty port complaints come of the way in which commerce is hampered by the exactions heaped upon it by Chinese officials. The transit dues have been so multiplied that it has become altogether impracticable for foreign merchants to do any trade with the interior, and the business is fast falling into the hands of the native dealers, who manage in some cases to contract with the Authorities for a monopoly of the pass certificates. The vexatious obstructions placed in the way of foreign merchants have been vigorously protested against time after time, but without avail, owing chiefly to the want of energy displayed by the British Representatives; while the Chinese officials, emboldened by the quiet submission shown, have waxed more and more daring, and have on numerous occasions violated not only the spirit but the letter of the Treaty.

THE HONGKONG NATIVE PRESS.

The Chung Yui San Po (the Chinese issue of the Daily Press) comments on the rumoured action which the new governor of Fokien is likely to take to subjugate the aborigines of Formosa. It thinks strong measures should be taken, since the aborigines have not been brought under the influence of civilization by comparatively peaceful means.
The Universal Circulating Herald adverts to the opening of Hainan as a treaty port.
It deprecates the undertaking, as the more ports are opened, the severer will be the competition. It confirms the Chinese Mail's version of the origin of the proposal to establish a station at Patara Island. The idea was mooted by the Chinese merchants at Macao themselves. It notices the many things to be seen in the City Hall Museum, and recommends people to contribute curious things toward it.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The Legislative Council will meet on Monday, the 6th March, at 2 p.m.

The Hoogy, with the next French Mail, left Singapore on Wednesday afternoon, 1st March.

The Caudor Castle is now on Capt. Sande-slip, but will shortly be ready to leave for Saigon.

We are informed by the Agents that the steamers Glenearn and Quagga left Singapore for this port yesterday, the 2nd inst., p.m.

The Ling Feng went out on a trial trip this morning, and returned about 5 o'clock in the afternoon. She will not leave for Hainan for some time yet.

H. M. S. Frodo will, we understand, leave very shortly for Singapore. H.M.S. Egeria and the Chinese gunboat Ling Feng are at present named as the vessels to proceed to K'ung-show.

We are requested to state that the owners of several silk and crape scarfs, articles of jewellery, &c., removed from newspapers for the United States, can have them on application at the Post Office; otherwise they will be sold.

A MEETING of the Justices will take place on Tuesday next at 11 a.m., to take into consideration an application from Mr G.
Stainfield, to take over from the Executors of the late Mr Lawrence Young, the license for the London Inn.

The Cricket Match, Club v. 28th Regt., was commenced to-day. The 28th went first to the wickets and scored 65, and at 6 o'clock the Club had scored 75 with 4 wickets, for which they are much indebted to Messrs Head and Sanderson, the former having made 37.

By kind permission of the Commodore, seamen from the various merchant vessels in port are invited to attend the usual Divine Service on board H.M.S. Victor Emanuel on Sunday morning at ten o'clock.
A launch will go round the harbour to collect those wishing to attend.

A very interesting addition is, we learn, about to be made to the City Hall Museum by the Surveyor General, in the shape of polished cubes of each description of granite (some 10 in number) found in the Hongkong quarries. The collection of woods already placed there is most valuable to architects. We are promised a complete list of articles on exhibition shortly.

The Indian packets left Singapore on the 1st instant, with 2,500 chests opium for this port. The third sale of the year was held yesterday, when the first instalment of new drug was brought forward, realising the average of Rs. 1,345 for Patna and Rs.
1,615 for Benares. The average for Old Patna was Rs. 1,335, and for Old Benares Rs. 1,265.

A notice has been circulated by the Postmaster-general (Charterers and Agents of sailing vessels for Manila during the N.E.
Monsoon are requested to give notice to this Office of the departure of such vessels.
The legal obligation to give the first notice to the Post Office is the same in the case of sailing vessels as in that of steamers, but in consequence of the almost disuse of sailing ships for Postal purposes it has not been insisted on. In regard to Manila, however, attention to it will oblige.

ANOTHER Chinese reformer has, it would appear, turned up in the person of the new Governor of Fokien, Ting Yih Chang, who is very strict in prohibiting his subordinates from receiving what have been given away and accepted as perquisites. He has made it a law that whoever receives a bribe to the value of four hundred cash, shall be beheaded. He has indeed struck terror into the hearts of the official classes, and has caused quite a revolution in officialdom, but why he has fixed the amount of corruption necessary for decapitation at 400 cash, we are not able to say.

A GREAT many complaints have reached our ears to the effect that at the recent Flower Show the exhibits of some who strictly complied with all the rules as to notice &c., were left out in the cold, and not even numbered; while late arrivals were not only ticketed but in many cases received prizes which might have been carried off by their more law-abiding competitors.

We fully sympathise with the Committee in the arduous work they had to perform.
But, having satisfied ourselves that the complaints are, at least in some instances, well founded, we may express a hope that more stringent adherence to the rules will on the next occasion obviate the necessity of renewed remonstrances.

OWING to the unpleasant rawness of the weather last night, the attendance at the City Hall on the occasion of the performance of "La Fille de Madame Ango," was not so good as had been anticipated, although there was a very fair house.
After the criticism already given in these columns, it is needless to say more than that the piece was gone through with an amount of verve and vivacity, and with a delicacy of gesture and action, as to afford great amusement even to those who do not thoroughly understand the language. At the conclusion of the performance the troupe were called before the curtain and received a hearty ovation. We understand they are going to Macao on a visit, before giving a final entertainment; after which they proceed to Shanghai en route to Japan.

The fourth ordinary general meeting of the Hongkong and China Bakery Company was held on Thursday afternoon (2nd inst.) The report, which we learn from the Press, was unanimously adopted, stated that the sum at the credit of the working account showed an increase upon the previous year of $2,352.44, and the net profit upon the account amounted to
